

CHRISTMAS MORNING DEVO

READ MATTHEW 2:1-12

The Wise Men recognized Jesus as the promised coming king and responded in two ways. First, by coming to Him--bringing themselves. Second, they brought Him gifts which recognized Him as the long-awaited savior, Lord, and king.

When you think about who Jesus is and what He's done for you, what might you bring before Him this morning?

Spend a few moments in prayer, then write down what area of your life you want to give Jesus this Christmas; perhaps it's more time, or an area of brokenness that needs redemption. For some it may be a commitment to share the gospel with a friend you've been too afraid to, or a monetary gift towards missions.

Whatever it is for you, write it down and place it somewhere you will see it in the coming weeks; on your fridge or in a journal.

BONUS ACTIVITY:

Celebrate Jesus' birth using modern day traditions! Make Him a birthday cake (or your favorite cinnamon rolls), light candles, and sing "Happy Birthday" to Him. Let the moment of His coming 2021 years ago be realized today in this present moment.
